

DEREK SHOOSTER, ASSOCIATE PLANNER

Originally from Boca Raton, FL, Derek joined SNHPC in 2016 after having lived, worked, and studied in Boston, MA since 2007. He graduated from Northeastern University in 2012 with a B.A. in Sociology, and from Boston University in 2015 with a Master of City Planning.

Derek's background includes demographic research experience with the Boston Redevelopment Authority, as well as several years of real estate sales and property management experience in Greater Boston. He is very passionate about creating healthier, socially equitable, efficient, greener, and economically sustainable places of value across all our communities.