

ADAM HLASNY, SENIOR TRANSPORTATION PLANNER

Adam joined the SNHPC team in June 2012 and was promoted to Senior Transportation Planner in March 2018. An NH native born and raised in Laconia, he graduated from Saint Anselm College in 2005 with a B.A. in English, and from West Chester University of Pennsylvania in 2007 with an M.A. in Geography.

Despite a soft-spoken nature, he brings a decade of experience at three regional planning commissions to the table. His specialty areas include multimodal transportation, transit, and Complete Streets, among others. He is one of several planners spearheading efforts to better market New Hampshire's Scenic Byways, organizing statewide forums in 2017 and 2018.

When not working, Adam can be found exploring the outdoors with his wife and 7-year old daughter, traveling, reading and/or writing. He is currently working on his first book, Given Latitude, which chronicles a North American road trip along the 43rd parallel.
