

JAMES VAYO, AICP, PROJECT MANAGER

James is SNHPC's newest member, joining the SNHPC team in August 2018 as a Project Manager. He has a decade of community engagement and project management experience and is an APA Certified Planner with a Bachelor's Degree in Architecture. James is also currently working towards his Master's Degree in Community Development Policy and Practice at the UNH Carsey School of Public Policy where he is developing a capstone project to identify opportunities for new housing typologies to be introduced in Downtown Manchester.

Prior to joining SNHPC, James worked as the Downtown Specialist for the Economic Development Division of the Mayor's Office in Nashua, NH. James is passionate about creating high quality cities and villages as a means to preserve the natural and working landscapes of New Hampshire. On any given day, you may catch James, his wife Liz, and daughter Chloe riding their bicycles from their home in Manchester to any of the great restaurants or parks in the city.
